The Lesson of the Day.

In the rapid current of intelligence which flows hitherward from our [illegible] homes beyond the Rocky Mountains—rushing over its lightning invested track at [illegible] item and the history of one thrilling event followed by the details of another equally momentous with such palpitating haste that the mind [illegible] and powerless to discern [illegible] comprehensive view the particular [illegible] which form the woof of any [illegible] avoid losing sight of the great lesson of the day transmitted for our instruction [illegible] the eternal and never-fading [illegible] of the Ruler of Nations for our good and the good of our country. What are the especial lessons [illegible] for us to con in this [illegible] of the Union of States? They have been written in different sections of the national domain, [illegible] Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, Ord, [illegible] and a host of other able and eloquent authors upon the subject of the perpetuity of American Freedom in its widest sense. To these written and [illegible] lessons have been added [illegible] approbation by Maine, Vermont, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana—yes, Ohio and Indiana—notwithstanding their armed legions of "buzzard shooting" copperheads—traitors armed an [illegible] to the Government, and only awaiting the preconcerted signal for a general uprising against and murder of their Union neighbors—neighbors guilty of the heinous and death deserving crime of fealty to their own chosen Administration—the free citizens of these States have performed jury duty and rendered a verdict in favor of the Union.

The verdict rendered by the States above named—comprising every State in which an election has been held since the traitors met at Chicago—will not be set aside in the Electoral College. Nor will any State now free, render a verdict in opposition to it. The copperheads may aim everywhere as they have throughout the Pacific States, they may meet in their infamous and reeking snake-dens where the black pall of night lowers over the scene and honest Union men are in their beds at home; they may prate of "Constitutional liberties," throw out their vague hints of what may occur if—they may prate and go through the foolish twaddle of "abuse to the Constitution," call President Lincoln a "traitor," a "buffoon," etc., and the brave Union troops "Lincoln's hirelings," then they may turn to a directly opposite position, and the Union defenders to the skies, cover them with "soft sawder," and half intimate that in consideration of their "eminent services" minor appointments shall be distributed among them until appointments are exhausted. All this and these the copperhead McClellanites may say, but honest people will regard them for what they are—simply traitors—and will not believe a word they utter because it is impossible for a perjured traitor to be an honest man. The people know this. It was one of the lessons learned in the past and it is not necessary for them to go back and review it. It was a sad chapter to memorize, and more sad to believe, but conviction [illegible] the statement and it has now become a matter of knowledge.

It is no more certain that the arms of the rebellion are becoming daily weaker, than that all professing Union men of common honesty and intelligence are retiring from the ranks of the McClellan faction. Many good Union men fell into the [illegible] phalanx of modern Democracy [illegible] there was some particular act of the Administration of which they could not approve, and it was at one time claimed that the Democratic party was a Union party. Now the Democrats—the more candid of them—do not claim it as a Union party; if it were, they would not belong to it. But intelligent men who were thus fooled into joining, now find that no word is ever uttered in their councils which favors the Union, and they are returning with a bigger disgust from the secession cause than did McClellan when he was refused a command [illegible] that he must [illegible]. He was conscious of his inability to do that, so he became intensely loyal and betrayed and disgraced the Union cause and slaughtered the Union troops to the fullest extent of his ability, proving himself the most skillful undertaker in the country. Good men are determined Little Mac shall not dig their political graves, and consign them [illegible] infamous [illegible] traitors, and when the [illegible] will find no votes for McClellan [illegible] but [illegible] traitors.

WHAT SHERIDAN SAYS [illegible] THE WAY OF [illegible] THE REBEL [illegible] the [illegible] of August [illegible] the Shenandoah Valley, says:

The enemy, as they retired from Strasburg, literally destroyed everything in the way of food for man or beast. With their immense cavalry they extended their lines from Front Royal in Warren county, to the North Mountain, west of [illegible] and burnt every bushel of wheat, in stack or in mill, in Frederick, Warren and Clarke [illegible] oats and hay they have [illegible] in these three counties. They drove before them every horse, cow, sheep [illegible] animal from the country. What the people [illegible] God only knows [illegible] taken from below Strasburg [illegible] left for the citizens [illegible] labor to cultivate [illegible] that starvation [illegible]

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of [illegible]. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the surplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? In answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. REDINGTON & CO. THE PROFITS OF AN ACRE.—As showing the profits of an acre of ground in Oregon we have an example furnished by Mr. J. P. Eagan, of Clackamas county, from which it appears he has received a net profit of $122.00 from the cultivation of one and three-eighths acres of ground the present season, which yielded 96 bushels and 28 lbs. of barley. This product proves the superiority of the soil, and the best assurance to the owners, that they can be more certain of a fortune in general by attending to the farm duties than "chasing gold excitements." A better claim cannot be secured up in the country than a farm in "Web-foot." It will produce more and better stock than any other investment in gold and silver mines if it is desirable; and if you are numbered among the "floating population," but if your have a farm, above all let it be impressed upon you that you are in possession of an invaluable mine of wealth which lies hidden in the soil, and then see that you realize that this is a reality to enjoy life in and get rich. Give the poor emigrant the results of your conclusions. Tell the farmer and the mechanic where and how he is needed; if the soil of Oregon will raise wheat or oats, or corn or potatoes, or whatever it does, let them know, and under such circumstances those who come here will assist rapidly in the development of our beautiful State.

FRIGHTFUL CALAMITY.—A terrible calamity happened to Mr. Gwinn, of Eola, Polk county, as he was driving his team to this city yesterday, with a load of flour. He was accompanied with his family, and when about nine miles west of Portland, in a section where the woods were on fire by the roadside, a burning tree fell across his wagon, the crash resulting in severe injury to Mrs. Gwinn, and her infant child, and killed a little son three years of age. The father escaped with a few scratches. It is thought the infant cannot live. A little girl was slightly injured. Coroner Hicklin was called to view the case, from whom we learn the particulars. The tree was a tall dry fir, and had burned off some feet from the ground. The top fell from that height and struck on the opposite side of the road, falling back across the forward wheels of the wagon, which were crushed flat. The team was preceded by another, a few rods, and they had stopped for a moment, Mr. G. being away from his wagon a few steps, at the instant of the calamity.

THE SANTIAM MINES.—From all accounts we are able to obtain, regarding the quartz mines on the Santiam, we infer that they are rapidly gaining a distinction, and will very soon show the proof of their richness. A five stamp quartz mill, of the [illegible] pattern, recently manufactured at the Oregon Iron Works in this city, is now on the route to the Santiam. It is intended for the "Gold Standard Quartz Milling Company," composed of a union of several of the mining companies in this new district. The mill is expected to be in operation by the first of December at least, and probably sooner. A wagon road is being constructed from [illegible]ville to Pleasant valley, a distance of twenty miles, which will make a continued and pleasant drive to Salem, forty miles farther, thus connecting the fertile region of our valley with the rich auriferous region.

SHIPMENT OF TREASURE.—The steamship Sierra Nevada, Francis Connor Commander, which sailed for Victoria and San Francisco last evening, carried away about 120 passengers, and $211,200 00 shipped as follows:

Wells, Fargo & Co.	$180,000 00
Ladd & Tilton	22,500 00
Allen & Field & Co.	5,200 00
Geo. Lyon & Co.	3,500 00
Total	$211,200 00

A QUID PRO QUO.—As the steamer was about to leave Couch's wharf with the San Francisco passengers, last evening, a clever son of Erin on the dock, handed a bottle of the liquid inspirer, to his companion on board, who was to leave him,

"It may be for years, and it may be forever;"

who in turn, with that quick perception accredited to his race, out with his knife and clipped off a lock of his hair, saying: "Here, kape this until I see ye." It was truly a reciprocation startling to us, and strangely revived the somewhat ancient couplet,

"Och, Biddy, me darlint, here's a lock o' me hair,
But if there's a snarl in't divil the bit do I care,"

[illegible] it was a well meaning and most palpable "tit for tat."

HOW IS THAT?—Our telegraphic reporter in California says a message was received at San Francisco [illegible] stating positively Pennsylvania has gone D[illegible], soldiers vote and all. Of course [illegible] residents "will place no reliance on [illegible] report." It don't agree with their tactics: "[illegible]" would not allow such a message as that to pass over the wires under his censorship! It is a [illegible] to make them "come out" for a little "Abolition powder" [everything is Abolition, you know!] [illegible], gentlemen; don't be too rash.

EXPORTS.—The ocean steamer which took her departure last evening, carries about 110 tons of Oregon produce for the Victoria and California markets. The bark Helen W. Almy, which took her departure from Springville on Sunday carries over 100 tons of our produce, besides considerable lumber which she will load at some point on the [illegible] River for San Francisco.

THE GLASS BLOWERS.—Mr. Kelly called upon us last evening, and informed us that the Glass Blowers had arrived in the city and would soon commence a series of entertainments for the amusement and instruction of our citizens. Mr. Kelly has become one of the permanent citizens of this State, and will exhibit a steam engine, manufactured at Oregon City, of glass.

SUMMER BREEZES.—If any one doubts the filthy, [illegible] state of things existing on the river front of this city, let that person take a look at the corrupting deposits of swill under any of the hotels, or buildings backed out over the levee. The sight [illegible], a walk along Front street, past some of the avenues leading to the river, with a S. E. wind like that of yesterday, will give a scent of what is to be seen. Cannot the Board of Health remedy the evil?

NEW MUSIC.—Prof. Sincheim has presented us with a piece of beautiful music, composed and arranged by Mrs. Caroline Leavison of San Francisco. "In memoriam of the late Rev. Starr King." It is a sample of what he has received by the last steamer, for sale. We recommend it to the attention of our musical friends and the admirers of the late patriotic divine, in whose name it is dedicated.

DELAYED.—The steamer for Vancouver did not leave this city until seven o'clock last evening, but that amounts to nothing: because, Capt. Turnbull rarely disappoints any one! His craft was engaged in the towing one of our barks into port.

ANOTHER GALE ON THE COLUMBIA.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt was detained on her usual round yesterday, considerably, in consequence of heavy gales blowing on the Columbia. Ten families arrived by her from the States.

ARRIVED.—The bark Jane A. Falkenberg, Capt. [illegible], arrived at her dock in this city last evening, in tow of the steamer Vancouver. This vessel draws on her present trip, thirteen feet of water, and has [illegible] broken cargo in reaching Portland.

THE MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—We are requested to state that as the moonlight excursion proposed by the ladies of the Christian Commission Society, has been given up, people may have their money refunded by returning their tickets.

HOME AGAIN.—The steamer Coulitz has passed into the hands of her former ownership, and is now lying at the foot of Morrison street, in this city.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—A meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department, will be held Tuesday evening next, 18th inst, at 7 o'clock P. M., at the Council Chamber. All the Delegates are requested to be present if possible—business of importance, requiring attention.

The first effect of a bilious climate upon the human system is to produce torpor and inactivity of the Liver, thereby preventing the natural and free discharge of bile. All know the [illegible] of the poison that produces Fever and Ague and its kindred diseases: A sallow complexion, capricious appetite, and occasional pain in the side, are often the only symptoms to warn of impending danger. The operation of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is to counteract this miasmal influence, by producing activity of the biliary organs, and a healthy discharge of bile from the system.

BY [illegible]

What! hoist the white flag when our triumph is nigh?
What! crouch before treason—make freedom a lie?
What! spike all our guns when the foe is at bay,
And the rags of his [illegible] away—
Tear down the strong flag that our nation has won,
And strike her brave [illegible] to the sun?

He's a coward who shrinks from the [illegible] the swing,
He's a traitor who mocks at the [illegible]
Nameless and homeless the [illegible] that [illegible]
The knave who stands idly till [illegible]
But he who submits when the [illegible]
And victory dawns, is [illegible]

Is the old spirit dead? [illegible]
That cravens so shamelessly [illegible] the white flag
To court the swift [illegible]
The tools of the treason and friends of the foe?
See! Anarchy smiles at the peace which they ask,
And the eyes of Disunion flash out through the mask.

Give thanks, ye brave boys, who by vale and by crag
Bear onward, unfaltering, our noble old flag,
Strong arms of the Union, heroes living and dead,
For the blood of your valor is uselessly shed!
No soldier's green laurel is promised you here,
But the white rag of "sympathy" softly shall cheer.

And you, ye war martyrs, who preach from your graves
How [illegible] lives are nursed by the masters of slaves,
Or, living, still linger in shadows of death,
Puff out the starved muscle, recall the last breath,
And shout till those cowards rejoice at the cry:
"By the hands of the Union we fought for we die!"

By the God of our Fathers! the shame we must share,
But it grows too debasing for freemen to bear,
And Washington, Jackson will turn in their graves
When the Union shall rest on two races of slaves,
Or, spurning the spirit which bound it of yore,
And, sundered, exist as a union no more!

A Defaulting Victorian a Confederate General.—We published recently, says the San Francisco Bulletin, among our Eastern news, a dispatch dated Washington, 20th September, by Secretary Stanton, in which he mentioned the victory gained on the previous day by Gen. Sheridan, over the Rebel General Early, near Bunker Hill, in which Generals Rhodes and Gordon were killed. The British Colonist, (Victoria, V. I.,) copying this dispatch, remarks:

There can be little doubt that the Confederate General Gordon, alluded to in our dispatches this morning as having lost his life at Bunker Hill, is our whilom Victorian and ex-member for Esquimalt Town, Gordon, the defaulting Treasurer of this Colony who, one bright Sunday morning, 2½ years ago, picked the lock of the side gate leading to the barrack-yard and escaped. It was known here about 18 months ago, that our ex-Treasurer had joined the rebel army as a Captain in Gen. A. P. Hill's staff, and it is not at all improbable that he was subsequently promoted to a brigadier-generalship, and while engaged in the raid with Early lost his life.

McClellan and his Supporters at Issue.—The Democracy find fault with the Administration for prosecuting the war. You can never subdue the South, they say every battle and skirmish proves that they are too courageous and proud spirited ever to be conquered; therefore the only hope for peace is in negotiation. The Democracy holding firmly to that doctrine and embodying it in the Chicago Convention, have nominated George B. McClellan for President. Yet this same McClellan, in his famous Harrison Landing letter, said:

"Our cause must never be abandoned; it is the cause of free institutions and self-government. The Constitution and the Union must be preserved, whatever may be the cost in time, treasure and blood. If secession is successful, other dissolutions are clearly to be seen in the future. Let neither military disaster, political faction, or foreign war shake your settled purpose to enforce the equal operation of the laws of the United States upon the people of every State."

Which do the Democrats of California elect—the principles or their men? They cannot get both unless the first are mere words or the last a traitor to himself.—S. F. Bulletin.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!

Louis McMurray & Co., Baltimore.

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the Oysters in its raw state, by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.

The undersigned have received fresh invoices by each arrival of clipper ships from New York, which they offer to the trade on favorable terms.

JAMES DUFFY,

HORSE SHOER—STAR SHOP!

NO. 1 FRONT STREET, PORTLAND.

ONCE upon a time both a Saddler and a Blacksmith were required to work upon a Horse, but now the boots are done away with, and the Saddler is required no more. And not long ago Missourian Shoeing was very prevalent in this city, but now it is done away with, because the best of judges pronounce it to be only fit for Cayuse Ponies, and not for American Horses.

Having had great experience in the line of HORSE SHOEING, gentlemen favoring me with a trial can rely upon having their work executed in the best workmanlike manner, and upon the most reasonable terms.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

REEDSBURG, Wis., Sept. 15, 1864.

[illegible] I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. C. A. FLAUTE.

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1863.

[illegible] One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters. EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET, NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

Dr. Drake: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

[illegible] I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life. REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

[illegible] Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

[illegible] I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me. REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

[illegible] Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house. SYKES, CHADWICK & CO., Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

[illegible] I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect. G. W. ANDREWS, Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that distressed me for years. It acts like a charm. C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.:

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified, and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER

The desponding, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect; he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION, itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

It is well known that the medicinal effects of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

IODINE WATER,

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most powerful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It acts upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR
SYSTEM,

and to have a great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to obtain without a solvent. This was considered impossible by the scientific world, as is attested by documents and analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton, of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners.—"American Medical Times," July 6, 1856.

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its various forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; patient pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and healthy.

Full directions accompany each bottle.
